Call for Nominations
William A. McAdams Outstanding Service Award
Joyce P. Davis Memorial Award

The William A. McAdams Outstanding Service Award is presented annually by the American Board of Health Physics (ABHP) and the American Academy of Health Physics (AAHP) to honor a Certified Health Physicist (CHP) who has made a significant contribution toward the advancement of professionalism in health physics and to the certification process. Nominees shall be CHPs who have served the health physics community through outstanding and extended work on the ABHP Examination Panels, ABHP Board, AAHP Continuing Education Committee, AAHP Executive Committee, other AAHP committees, teaching or other assistance in increasing knowledge of HPs, or other areas that enhance the professionalism of health physics. This award may be bestowed posthumously.

The Joyce P. Davis Memorial Award is given in memory and honor of Joyce P. Davis in recognition of her dedication to the advancement of health physics and her humanitarian efforts to uphold the ethics of the profession. The recipient of this award demonstrates these extraordinary qualities exemplified by Ms. Davis, distinguishing him/herself for excellence in professional achievement as well as being admired for ethical behavior and interpersonal skills. Nominees shall be CHPs who have been a member of the AAHP for a minimum of 10 years, have been a champion of professional standards and ethics, and have exhibited exemplary professional service to the American Board of Health Physics or the American Academy of Health Physics.

Any member of the Academy may submit a nomination. Nominations should be received by 2 March 2002.
